AMENDED SCHEDULING ORDER

This Amended Scheduling Order REPLACES and SUPPLANTS the prior Scheduling Order [Doc. 106] entered in this case as to all unexpired deadlines and outstanding requirements. Unless a new date is provided by this Order, deadlines that expired prior to the entry of this Order remain expired.

1. Jurisdiction: In this case, the subject matter jurisdiction of the Court has been invoked pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331 and 28 U.S.C. § 1338 and is not disputed.

Pursuant to Magistrate Judge Poplin's Memorandum and Order [Doc. 75], Defendants' participation in discovery (including propounding their own discovery) or the entry of a protective order will not be construed as a waiver of their personal jurisdiction or improper venue defenses while their motions to dismiss [Docs. 38 & 40] remain pending. [Id. at 16-17].

2. Consent to a Magistrate Judge: The parties do not consent that all proceedings in this case may be conducted by a United States Magistrate Judge in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 636(c).
3. Settlement / Alternative Dispute Resolution: The parties shall discuss the possibility of utilizing the Federal Court Mediation Program in this case. If the parties believe the Federal Court Mediation Program can aid in resolving the case, information is available on the Court's website and can be requested in writing from the Division Manager, U.S. District Court, 900 Georgia Avenue, Room 309, Chattanooga, Tennessee 37402.
4. Disclosure and Discovery:

- (a) Discovery Plan: The parties have held a discovery planning meeting and submitted a discovery plan as required by Rule 26(f).

- (c) Expert Testimony: Plaintiff shall disclose any expert testimony in accordance with Rule 26(a)(2) on or before August 9, 2022. Defendant shall disclose any expert testimony in accordance with Rule 26(a)(2) on or before September 6, 2022. The parties shall disclose rebuttal testimony within thirty days after the other party's disclosure.

See Section 5(c), below, regarding expert-related motions.

- (d) Final Witness List: On or before September 20, 2022, the parties shall provide to all other parties and file with the court a final witness list in accordance with Rule 26(a)(3)(A)(i). Within five days after service, the final witness list may be supplemented. After that time the list may be supplemented with leave of the Court and for good cause.
- (e) All Discovery: All discovery—including the taking of depositions, requests for admissions, and all discovery-related motion practice—shall be completed by October 18, 2022. After that date, the parties may conduct discovery by agreement, but the Court will not involve itself in any disputes that may arise.
- (f) Pretrial Disclosures: On or before January 10, 2023, the parties shall make the pretrial disclosures specified in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(a)(3)(A)(ii) and (iii). All deposition testimony to be offered into evidence must be disclosed to all other parties on or before this date.

The failure to timely file such motions will be grounds to summarily deny them. Absent extraordinary circumstances, the dispositive motion deadline will not be extended.

Judge Atchley prefers not to receive statements of undisputed material facts and will disregard any such statement unless it is (i) jointly filed, (ii) contains no argument, and (iii) sets forth facts rather than the parties' positions. If a "response" is filed, the Court will construe the statement as not jointly filed and disregard it.

- (c) Daubert Motions: All motions to exclude expert testimony pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 702 should be filed as soon as possible but no later than November 15, 2022.

- (e) Special Requests to Instruct for Jury Trial: Pursuant to Local Rule 51.1, the parties shall confer and submit a single joint proposal for jury instructions to the Court no later than February 7, 2023. All jury instructions in the joint proposal, including agreed and competing instructions, shall be supported by citation to authority pursuant to Local Rule 7.4. A copy of the proposed jury instructions must be sent as a Microsoft Word document to atchley_chambers@tned.uscourts.gov.

The Court uses the Sixth Circuit Criminal Pattern Jury Instructions as its model in formulating the final instructions given to the jury. Proposed jury instructions should follow the form of the pattern instructions.
